Mystery Novelist Digger Cartwright Explores Collaboration on Future Novel with Glenn P.
Clinger III

Orlando, FL (PRWEB) July 19, 2007—Digger Cartwright, author of Murder at the Ocean Forest, held secret meetings with Glenn P. Clinger III (Flight 412) in Savannah, Georgia recently. According to those close to Mr. Cartwright and Mr. Clinger, the two discussed collaborating on several mystery/political thriller novels in the future. Though no specifics were given, the two novelists appeared to agree on the strategic benefits offered by working jointly on at least one novel in the future. Sources say the earliest projected release date would be late 2008 or early 2009.

Erika Velasquez, spokeswoman for Mr. Cartwright, read Mr. Cartwright's statement following conclusion of the meetings:

"I am excited by the prospect of working with Mr. Clinger in the future. It is a pleasure to meet a fellow novelist who is so closely aligned with me on developing a first class novel for loyal followers. I look forward to an ongoing dialogue with Mr. Clinger in the coming months as we explore options for potential collaboration."

Ms. Velasquez indicated that no photo opportunities were arranged during Mr. Cartwright's visit to Savannah or during the meetings with Mr. Clinger. Transcripts of Mr. Clinger and Mr. Cartwright's meetings were not made available.

More information on Mr. Cartwright is available on his website, www.DiggerCartwright.com. His most recent novel, Murder at the Ocean Forest, is available in hardback and paperback on the website and through online book retailers.
